Are you struggling to drive operational efficiencies? Weighing the pros and cons of fleet ownership versus leasing?

Evaluating whether to buy fuel in bulk or through a long-term contract? Because these “forks in the road” directly impact profits, consulting with a trusted advisor who understands transportation is imperative to your success.

CRI provides personalized audit, assurance, tax, and consulting services designed to increase the profitability of trucking and transportation companies with fleets of five to 1,000+ power units. Our professionals provide cost-effective solutions designed to help your company go the extra mile by delivering added value and insight. We maintain our efficiency with up-to-the-minute awareness of the Tax Code and policy changes that affect you.

The CRI team offers holistic, innovative solutions that enhance your bottom line. We participate in trucking industry events and state associations, enabling us to leverage our knowledge of current trends to proactively address business challenges that could be in your “blind spot.”
